

A fact family is a group of four numerical statements that represent the same meaning.